THE MERRY, MERRY MONTH OF MAY

LONDON WHEN DAFFODILS—AND TANGATHERERS ARE DUE!

THE MIRACLE: A BRUTAL AND SHOCKING SHOW.

[12th LETTER TO HELENA OF HONG KONG FROM JOCASTA.]

My Dear HELENA,—London has been invaded since last I wrote to you, for Young England is home for the holidays. Every place seems gay with the eager voices bright eyes and rosy cheeks of a horde of cheery boys and girls. They hover round Hamleys, they flock into Maskelyne and Devants, the Zoo is their stronghold and the Kennington Gardens is their Happy Hunting Ground. They fly toy aéroplanes on the hump beside Kensington Palace, they bowl hoops along the alleys where chestnut trees spread their green fingers, and elms and hawthorns are already powdered with buds. Prettiest of all is the Round Pond where the Commanders and Admirals of the future assemble to sail boats. It is the "rendezvous" for children from every corner of the globe. Many a small Wolf-Cub from the Peak Pack may be found there and more than once my ears have been greeted by a familiar sing-song and the words "I know your fare Missie,
I belong Hong Kong-Amah!" The Round Pond is dear to the heart of every child. The tiny child with her little skiff on a string, the bigger one with a clockwork boat, and schoolboys of every age with fine racing yachts on cutters, intent on the reefing of sails and adjusting of rudders,—but whether the boat be large or small its course is followed by anxious eyes and the proud owners heart beats just a little faster, as it starts off on the great adventure "across the water. When at last it nears land he may be seen scampering along to pull it ashore, or to send it off on another voyage. Oh, there is lots of fun in the London parks when the jasmin and wild-cherry are in flower, when the daffodils shake the rain-drops from their yellow kirtles and the blackbirds sing, through the April showers.
Lucky birds,—no wonder they sing.
They live in the trees rent free and pay no rates. They go to sleep when the sun sets and have no electric light bills, and when hungry they can hop down and make a hearty meal off a 100 per cent.

British worm.

CIDER AND SCENT.

Talking of worms,—last week was a black week for the tax-paying variety when the Budget came out!
Many people hoped that income-tax would be reduced to reasonable limits, others that the beer-tax would be removed, and everyone hoped that something would happen to make prospects just a little brighter but it seems that the Millennium is not due yet awhile.
Our previous Chancellor of the Exchequer adjured us to spend as usual, but I notice the present one advises us to save (rather an ominous sign, don't you think?) and generally conveys the impression that he thinks we have been living up to the Champagne Standard and must now come down to plainer fare. Since beer is taxed and tea is taxed the obvious course is to drink cider which is about the only free drink left; and there are worse drinks than cider (but not many!) says a masculine voice in my ear. What worries me the most is the thought that my favorite powder and perfume will cost me more! If tariffs soar higher I may be reduced to spraying my ambrosial locks with English Lavender ("well" murmurs the voice again, "there are worse things than lavender, you might be reduced to eau-de-Cologne.") Yes I must admit that would be even worse! There is something about eau-de-Cologne which reminds one irresistibly of a Channel crossing or a night in a Continental train. Let us hope that the sporting instincts of Messrs. Coty and Houbigant will triumph over tariffs and save me and all other impecunious females from such a dismal fate.

ROYAL IS ECONOMICAL

The cost of baking powder used in the preparation of a cake is insignificant compared with the cost of the other ingredients.
The difference saved in using a cheaper baking powder in preference to ROYAL hardly compensates the housewife for the risk of spoiling the other more expensive ingredients. The saving is a fraction of a cent compared to the spoiling of fifty cents to one dollar's worth of butter, eggs, milk, sugar, etc.

"THE MIRACLE."

A few days ago I passed the Lyceum Theatre and saw a cur which stretched from the colonnade right round the corner into the Strand—it was "pit-tee" waiting to get in to the Cochrane-Reinhardt production of "The Miracle." I concluded that a show which could attract such a crowd on Monday afternoon must be worth seeing so accordingly followed their example. When I got inside I gazed round in amazement, feeling as if I had strayed into some vast cathedral. Gray Walls and Gothic Arches reached from the dress-circle to the stage. There was no curtain and the aromatic smell of incense was wafted from a shrine where candles burnt before the image of the Madonna. Presently a bell tolled through the obscurity and so began the most strange and unpleasant performance I have ever seen. Lavishly mounted and wonderfully mimed and danced by a number of famous "Stars" this unique spectacle brings all the brutalities and superstitions of the Middle Ages so vividly before one that ones spirit recoils!

Tilly Loach takes the part of the erring "Nun." Maud Allan is the "Abbess." Leonide Massine, the "Spielmann," Lyn Harding the mad "King" while lovely Lady Diana Manners takes the part of the "Madonna." Of course you remember the story? A young and beautiful nun is tempted to forsake her vows for love of a handsome young knight. The sinister Spielmann lures her with magic music and the image of the Madonna moves in its shrine to point the way. The Knight carries the Nun away and the image comes to life and steps from the niche to take her place that none may miss her. The shrine is left empty and the Abbess is terrified when she finds that the image of the Virgin has gone.

The Nun and her lover stray into a forest, but at the height of their bliss they are found by a Robber Chief who murders the Knight and carries off the screaming girl. At the banquet of the Robber she is next seen, frozen with grief. A disolute Prince arrives. He desires the girl and gets her by a trick from her ravisher. He takes her to his castle but he too quarrels over her and is killed by the King, his father. Mad with remorse the King has a doll made in the image of his dead son. When he forces the Nun to dance with it she too goes mad, and is tortured as a witch, by the Inquisition. Rescued by soldiers she ends her days in rags as a camp-follower, and comes with a dying baby to the very church from which she once fled. Then comes the Miracle! Among the nuns there, the Madonna is still waiting for her. Taking the dead child in her arms she returns in a blaze of light to her shrine and becomes an image again. The mother dies content, while the Abbess and her nuns worship at the shrine once more.

Not a very edifying tale and treated with quite unnecessary coarseness in the Lyceum revival: in fact I could not help wondering how the "bedroom-scene" in the second act ever got past the censor. Of course we all know that orgies were commonly held on wedding nights in Medieval times, but hardly expect to be called upon to witness them! The mock-marriage when bridesmaids robed in white but masked with pigs snouts drag in the trembling bride, and prance round the bridal-bed, nauseated me beyond everything! Let those who revel in horrors go to "The Miracle." It will probably run for at least a year, but I shall not be there.

It was a positive relief to go the following night to Gladys Coopers latest play, by name "Dr. Pygmalion." It is the cleverest, funniest and most exhilarating comedy I have seen for ages and I will tell you all about it in my next letter.—Yours affectionate friend,

JOCASTA.

LESSON SERMON.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, HONG KONG.

"God the only cause and creator" was the subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 5.

The Golden Text was—"Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created." (Revelation 4:11.)

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible—"Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding. For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold. The Lord by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens." (Prov. 3: 13, 14, 19.)

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following—passage from the Christian Science textbook: "Science and Health, with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy.—"To grasp the reality and order of being in its Science, you must begin by reckoning God as the divine Principle of all that really is. All substance, intelligence, wisdom being, immortality, cause and effect belong to God. These are His attributes, the eternal manifestations of the infinite divine Principle, Love." (p. 273.)

Miss A. Fryer Nursing Sister Q. A. R. N. N. S.

The Board have approved the following special advancements to date June 3 for devotion to duty when an explosion occurred in H. M. S. "Wessex" on January 6 1932, J. G. Swann Leading Stoker advanced to Stoker Petty Officer, W. F. Cook E. R. A. 1st Class advanced to Chief E. R. A. 2nd Class.

TULSA EXPLOSION.

FIREMAN KILLED ON THE SPOT

SEVEN OTHER CASUALTIES.

Latest information about the explosion on board the U.S.S. Tulsa last Wednesday, while the vessel was anchored off Kulsang, Amoy, indicate that one of the crew was killed, while seven others were injured, three of them seriously.

The explosion occurred at 10 o'clock in the morning and was caused by a leak in the ice-making plant. The force of the explosion lifted the bulkhead separating the ice house compartment from the Chief Mate's compartment right out of the ship, smashing the furniture and fittings.

Among the casualties were the following:—

Killed.

W. E. Leathers, Fireman (2nd class).

Injured.

W. W. Allen, Chief Electrician's Mate;

R. P. Hawley, Chief Machinist's Mate;

H. H. Linder, Chief Pharmacist's Mate;

F. J. Lewis, Chief Mechanic's Mate, severe burns and shock;

A. J. Penine, Ship's Cook (Third Class) severe burns on arms and face;

A. B. P. Pereira, severe burns on arms and face;

W. W. Carter, fireman, severe burns on body;

Rush, Chief Water Tender, slight burns on face.

Three of the petty officers seriously injured in the mishap were taken to Manila for treatment, the U.S.S. John D. Edwards conveying them to Hong Kong, where they were transferred to the U.S.S. Gold Star. The body of Fireman Leathers was also conveyed by this vessel and will be sent back later to his home in America. The remainder of the injured were taken to hospital in Amoy.

Spark Causes Mishap.

The attention of those on board being drawn to the odour of escaping gas, Fireman Leathers and C. P. O. Hawley proceeded to the room in which the ice making plant was housed, to make investigations. The leak was discovered by Leathers, who immediately pulled out the switch to stop the ice plant. As the disconnection was made, a spark flashed across the gaps, followed immediately by a blinding explosion, as the escaping ethyl chloride gas ignited. Leathers was flung violently into the air and was killed immediately. Hawley, who was standing in the doorway of the room, was thrown into the passage by the force of the explosion, and suffered compound fractures of his arm and leg.

C.P.O. Allen and C.P.O. Linder, two members of the crew who were seriously injured, were in the mess room above the ice-making plant, while two of the others were over 25 feet away from the source of the explosion.

Members of the crew, as they ran to the scene of the explosion, were greeted with a scene of wreckage. C.P.O. Hawley was lying in the passage, his clothes torn off, and his body a mass of burns and inside the compartment was the body of Leathers. The ice plant was totally wrecked, and the walls of the compartment bulged out.

Call for Help.

The destroyer John D. Edwards, which was then at Swatow, immediately proceeded to Amoy in response to wireless messages. It was decided to despatch the three seriously injured cases to Manila whence they will be taken to the U.S. Naval Hospital at Canacao, near Cavite.

Latest reports indicate that the Tulsa is leaking as a result of the explosion, and a Naval Construction Officer from Shanghai to make a thorough examination of the damage. It is understood that, as a result, the Tulsa may shortly proceed to Hong Kong or Cavite to be docked.

The Tulsa was constructed in 1922 and has a net displacement of 1,575 tons. The total complement aboard is 165, and the ship is under the command of Captain Rice.

CO., LTD.

I wish to congratulate you on your latest production "Humanity" which I saw at the pre-view at the Central Theatre.

You have chosen very fine Chinese scenery as background for the picture, which incidentally gives a true glimpse of life in China. The cast also is worthy of note, and in my opinion the acting represents a marked improvement in films yet produced.

I feel confident that this picture will appeal to Foreign as well as Chinese cinema fans.

Wishing you every success,

Yours faithfully,

LETTER FROM

THE AMERICAN TRADE
COMMISSIONER

Through your courtesy, Mrs. Barringer and I had the great pleasure of seeing a pre-view of your picture "Humanity" on Saturday, April 23rd.

We both greatly enjoyed the picture. As the writer spent two years in European Russia in charge of American relief operations during the great Russian famine of those years, I can vouch for the excellent "shots" that you have showing real famine conditions. I think that this is a splendid picture, and as you say, should appeal to both European and Chinese audiences. The close-ups were particularly good, and although in spots the photography might have been improved upon, on the whole I consider it a very high grade production.

Thanking you for having remembered me when you showed this picture.

I am,

Very truly yours,

(Sgd.) THOMAS C. BARRINGER,

American Trade Commissioner.

LETTER FROM

THE HONGKONG AMUSEMENTS, LIMITED.

I wish to thank you for your courtesy in giving me an opportunity to attend the private pre-view of your latest film "HUMANITY."

In congratulating you upon your success in its production, I wish to state that the picture discloses a most pathetic story, very finely told, acted and photographed. The famine problem is very vividly portrayed and the film should give the world a true glimpse of village life in the interior of China.

On the whole, my Associates and I consider this picture as the greatest triumph yet achieved by your Company and it is worthy of the attention of not only the Chinese people but all foreigners who would undoubtedly find interest from an insight of the life and existence of villagers in China.

With best wishes to you and your Company for every success in the exploitation of the above film.

Yours very truly,

(Sgd.) C. S. ROSSELETT,
Secretary, Hongkong Amusements, Ltd.

LUPINO LANE'S HOLIDAY.

HILARIOUS ADVENTURES AT BLACKPOOL.

Lupino Lane's holiday in Blackpool gives a couple of hours of hilarious farce, and it is farce that makes delightful fun of film-land's stock-in-trade of plots and counter-plots, villains and counts, guns and gangsters, which we are generally asked to take quite seriously. By far and away the best scene was Lupino in feminine disguise attracting all the naughty old roués of the place. Then you have British musical comedy, culminating with a swinging song and a chorus of bathing belles, lads in flannels and the troupe of old roués, headed by Lupino, looking simple in a georgette frock miles too big for him.

There are also some wonderful chases with policemen, holiday crowds, wife and family and the frock coated conspirators, trailing desperately after the scared little figure who always outwits them.

The plot is mere makeshift and some of the film was probably improvised on the spot, but it is good to see a British crowd letting itself go and really enjoying the fun.

A musical interlude at the start has an attractive setting in the futurist manner. Some of it is a bit tedious, but there are two girls who can dance, and a fine crescendo of ballet with the music rushing you along in a torrent.

EVERY WOMAN WILL UNDERSTAND...

CHARLES FARRELL and MADGE EVANS through HEARTBREAK to happiness

every girl will know... why her heart forgave and her love endured.

A Fox Picture
A love that would make any woman envious.

TILL WE MEET AGAIN. Madge Evans bids a fond farewell to Hardie Albright, who entrusts her to the care of his friend, Charles Farrell, in "Heartbreak", Fox picture.

"HEARTBREAK."

SEARCH FOR AUSTRIA'S LOVELIEST BLONDE.

A trade notice states:—
Unwittingly, the judges in a recent Viennese beauty contest influenced the casting of a feature picture in Hollywood.

The judges in Vienna were conscientiously searching for the perfect type of native beauty, which fitted in exactly with the needs of the casting office at Fox Studios where they were looking for a leading woman to co-star with Charles Farrell in "Heartbreak," the romance drama which plays at the King's Theatre beginning next Thursday. The script called for her to represent the fairest of Austria's daughters, and to portray the rôle of a countess—an exacting requirement, even in Hollywood.

Finally, the Viennese committee, which included artists and sculptors, agreed that Marie Von Eisler was "the most perfect blonde in Vienna, or anywhere else on the European continent."

When this final decision and report was handed down, the powers that are in the Fox casting office, breathed a prayer of thanks because they had already practically decided upon Madge Evans as the most suitable actress to fill the coveted rôle. They were exceedingly grateful that their choice almost exactly coincided with the selection made by the serious-minded Viennese-admitted authorities on such matters.

Miss Evans like Fraulein Eisler has golden-blond hair. She is 5' 10" tall, weighs 120 pounds, and is 24 years of age. This beauty who recently scored in "Guilty Hands" plays the leading feminine rôle in "Heartbreak," story of courage and love that could survive tragedy and misunderstanding.

Farrell is said to excel even his performance in "Merely Mary Ann." Hardie Albright, Paul Cavanagh and John Arledge are the other featured players. Alfred Werker directed.

ELOQUENCE IN DOCK.

PRISONER'S SPEECH SAVES
HIM TWO YEARS.

A prisoner's appeal at the Old Bailey led to Sir Ernest Wild, the Recorder, passing sentence of three years' penal servitude, instead of "five years, as I had intended."

The case was one in which Ernest Walters, aged 30, a clerk, pleaded guilty to frauds on jewellers, bankers, and solicitors.

Walters said, "It is terrible for an educated man like myself to go home, because there is a social ostracism which an uneducated man does not get."

"People talk about prison reform, but the real trouble starts when one leaves prison and faces a hostile world. I am not a fool, but my sentences are an example of vicious arithmetic. I have had eight and a half years' sentences for crimes affecting only 2400 or 2500."

"I hope you will not send me back to penal servitude simply because I have been there before."

"Do you think I want to go back among living dead men? The law has had a tremendous lot out of me, and I think it can now afford to give me a break."

"I think he ought to have been at the Bar," added Sir Ernest as Walters left the dock.

Grock and His Partner.

Grock, most famous of modern clowns, has quarrelled with Max, his right hand man, and an association of fourteen years has ended.

Their difference has been followed by a law-suit. Max is demanding about £300, representing six months' salary in lieu of notice, and £1,500 compensation for the "moral and artistic damage" he feels he has sustained.

Grock alleges that his partner deserted him suddenly when they were playing at the Coliseum in London, forcing him to cancel his contract.

"It is essential," Grock told the court, "for clowns and their partners to be so much in sympathy with one another and on such terms that they can collaborate closely at all times."

The "Vice Ring."

A new film which has created rather a stir at the Empire, London, is "The Beast of the City," an exposure of America's "vice ring." It has a big cast of stars, including Walter Huston and Jean Haxlow.

Super-Cinema.

Another super cinema on the outskirts of London has just opened. This is the Ritz, Edgware, owned by Associated British Cinemas. It is a luxury theatre in the West End style, with an interior suggesting surroundings of natural beauty in a tropical setting.

Stage Tradition.

Expressing surprise that the 60-year-old actress, who was killed by falling from a stairway on the stage during a performance of "Cavalcade" at Drury Lane, did not cry out, the Coroner (Mr. Ingley-Oddie), at the Westminster inquest, said:

"It may be that, being an actress, she did not do so because she did not want to interrupt the performance." The actress was Mrs. Laura Reed, professionally known as Laura Tully. She belonged to an old theatrical family and lived at

GIRL OF 15 SAYS SHE IS
"MADLY IN LOVE."

RUNAWAYS FOUND AFTER WIRELESS S.O.S.

A Mother who thought that she must "advance with the times" and who allowed her 15-year-old daughter to go out with a boy of 17.

Her Daughter, who disappeared and was found at Yeovil with the boy after a broadcast S.O.S., and who now says she is "madly in love with him."

The Boy, who was described by the prosecuting solicitor as "not a bad boy," and

The Girl's Father, who described the boy as a good lad.

These were the characters in a remarkable case at Salisbury in which Frederick Hector McDonald Hayter, aged 17, of Fairfield-road, Salisbury, was charged with abducting Olive Catherine Pearce, aged 15.

There were further charges against Hayter relating to two alleged offences in respect of the girl at Yeovil.

A message stating that the girl was missing from her home at Hill-view-terrace, Salisbury, was broadcast on April 23.

Mr. H. T. Jones, prosecuting for the Salisbury City Police, said that Hayter had lived partly with his father and partly with his grandparents at Fairfield-road. He added:

"As far as we know he has not been a bad boy in any sense of the word."

"In January of this year the boy struck up an acquaintance with the girl and visited her house. The parents of the girl apparently were quite willing that this friendship should exist."

"It is suggested that the boy was leading rather an unhappy life at home. We may take it that he sought refuge in the house of the girl."

"If You Go, I Go."

Early in April he suggested to the girl that he intended to leave Salisbury. He said he could not stand it any longer, and he was going to Yeovil to look for work.

"The girl's evidence will be that when he said that, she said, 'If you go, I go.'"

Mr. Jones said that the mother of the girl was first aware that there was something out of the ordinary when she saw her daughter leaving the house that morning as if she were going to business, but carrying her make-up and an overcoat wrapped up under her arm.

Attempts were made to trace the girl, and a message was broadcast by wireless.

The effect of that was to bring the matter to the notice of the woman who kept the house in which these two young people were at Yeovil. She immediately telegraphed to the mother.

Room for the Week-end.

What had happened in the meantime was that the two took a train to Yeovil. They walked about. The boy went to a house in Yeovil to inquire about rooms and took a room for the week-end.

"They slept in the same room," added Mr. Jones.

Alfred John Pearce, the girl's father, said he and his wife met Hayter and were satisfied that he was a respectable boy. "He was a good lad," he added.

The girl's mother, Katherine Pearce, said that the girl was employed as an apprentice at a draper's shop. Mrs. Pearce told both of them that they must be home at 8.30 or 8.45, except when they went to the pictures.

Mrs. Pearce said that she had eleven children, six being daughters.

Olive was the youngest daughter but one. Hayter gave about £15 and some Savings Certificates to the girl to be put away for him.

Mrs. Pearce said she was asked by her daughter for the bulk of the money a few days before the boy and girl went away. She understood the boy was buying a bicycle.

When She Changed.

"Olive was always frank and open, but it seemed that she became not quite so frank," added Mrs. Pearce. "She did not come and tell me all the little tales she used to tell me."

Mr. Lemon (defending).—As a woman who has had 11 children, do you think it wise to allow a boy and girl to be in each other's company night after night in that way without some caution?

Mrs. Pearce.—I thought it was much better than her getting about with a lot of girls. I did not think she would come to half so much harm.

"As times were different I thought I would have to keep up with the different times," said Mrs. Pearce later, when she was questioned about her daughter going out with Hayter.

The girl, pretty and slightly built, with fair hair, and wearing a blue beret, gave evidence. She said:

"When he said he was going away I asked him if I could go. He did not himself know where he was going."

Mr. Lemon.—Your are madly in love with Hayter, and you believe that he is madly in love with you?

Yes.

If your parents consented, would you marry him?

Yes.

Hayter was committed for trial at Wiltshire Assizes on all charges.

PEAK TRAMWAYS.

GOOD YEAR'S WORK REPORTED.

A SLIGHT INCREASE IN DIVIDEND.

"Your Directors and General Managers are pleased to come before you with the most satisfactory Statement of Accounts that they have been able to present to you for several years past," said Mr. Henry Humphreys when he presided at the annual general meeting of the Peak Tramways Co., Ltd., which was held at the Hong Kong Hotel on Saturday. Supporting the chairman were Messrs J. Scott Harston, A. B. Stewart, L. J. Davies (Directors) and Mr. J. L. Quie (Secretary), while shareholders present were Messrs D. Wilson, J. A. Tarrant, D. E. Clark, P. C. Potts, and J. D. Humphreys.

Chairman's Speech.

Addressing the gathering Mr. Humphreys said:

"Your Directors and General Managers are pleased to come before you with the most satisfactory Statement of Accounts that they have been able to present to you for several years past, enabling us to recommend an increase in dividend of 2 per cent. This has been made possible by increases in Traffic Receipts and Rents of $8,050.88 and $3,920.00 respectively and a reduction in expenditure of $7,017.14. The increase in the Rent Account being due to the leasing of the advertising rights on Cars and Stations."

"There has been no capital expenditure on construction or reconstruction during the period under review. Maintenance and Repairs Account however is $8,500.34 more than last year, this is chiefly accounted for by our ropes costing more owing to the low rate of the dollar."

"A new item in the Report is the proposed allocation of $4,000 for Passages and Leave Pay. This has been put forward at the instance of our Auditors who said they did not consider it right that the whole burden of leave pay and passages should fall on one year only. In future we shall debit Salaries and Wages in Profit and Loss Account and credit Leave Pay and Passages Account with $3,000 annually."

The adoption of the report and accounts was seconded by Mr. Peter Potts, and carried unanimously.

Other Business.

On the proposal of the Chairman, seconded by Mr. J. A. Tarrant, Sir Robert Ho Tung, Sir Elly Kadoret, Mr. A. B. Stewart, Mr. J. Scott Harston and Mr. L. J. Davies were elected Directors.

Messrs. Lowe, Bingham and Matthews, and Messrs. Linstead and Davis were re-elected auditors, on the proposal of Mr. D. Wilson, seconded by Mr. J. D. Humphreys. Mr. M. H. Turner and the Hon. Mr. C. Gordon Mackie resigned from the Board during the year, owing to their leaving the Colony. Messrs. J. Scott Harston and L. J. Davies were invited to fill the vacancies.

STEEL MAGNATE FOUND SHOT.

TRAGEDY IN MUSIC ROOM OF MANSION.

Sheffield.—Mr. P. E. Kuehnrich, a Sheffield business man who produced a new steel for safety razor blades, was found shot dead in the music-room in his house, Holly Court, Sheffield.

The tragedy follows the announcement that Mr. Kuehnrich had executed a deed of assignment to protect his estate against pressing claims.

Mr. Kuehnrich asked for a cup of tea at 8 a.m., and soon afterwards his servants heard a thud. They hurried to the music room, but found the door locked. They had to enter through the window by means of a ladder.

A shot gun was found in the room. A few days ago a receiver was appointed at the Universal Rustless Steel Corporation, Ltd., of which Mr. Kuehnrich was managing director and promoter.

Staff Reduced.

Recently he had had to reduce his staff of gardeners from nine to two.

He was born in Germany, but became a naturalised Briton 35 years ago.

He had a house on Lake Constance and was a personal friend of Dr. Eckener, the Zeppelin commander.

Mr. Kuehnrich was technical consultant and adviser to Darwin's, Ltd.

Mr. Kuehnrich was a striking figure, 6ft. in height, and had a flowing beard.

RAW SILK.

MAY MARKET NERVOUS AND FLUCTUATING.

Messrs. Penton and Co. have kindly forwarded to us the following letter dated May 2 from Hamburg Hemelryk and Co., Liverpool.

The market has fluctuated nervously during the fortnight under review without any definite tendency, and values show on balance a loss of 5 points for nears and an appreciation of 2 to 3 points for distant.

The main feature since our last market letter is, the reported sale by the Japanese Government of the 108,800 bales of "custody" silk to American interests. It will be remembered that this silk was taken off the market by the Japanese Government in 1930 in the hope of sustaining prices, and the loss in connection with it is estimated by the Japanese Press at 100 million yen.

Japanese statistics for the first fortnight of April indicate that the total exports were well ahead of those for the corresponding period a year ago. Port stocks (including the 108,800 bales of "custody" silk) totaled 132,300 bales on the 15th. ult., a reduction of 2,000 bales since the end of March.

The relative weakness of nears compared to distant is due to the fact that a large part of the trading has recently consisted of transfers of near deliveries to forward positions. This reflects the drastic curtailment of production by manufacturers owing to the disappointing volume of Spring business. On the other hand, consumption of silk by hosiery manufacturers is fairly good.

Inability to move finished goods in sufficient volume and poor credit condition have made it difficult for some manufacturers to finance purchases of raw silk. Mills are endeavouring to obtain business which at current prices for cloth assures little, if any, profit, and the situation of some manufacturers is causing considerable concern.

Lately the tone of the Japanese markets has improved and has been a strengthening influence. The current low prices have apparently stifled competition from other silk growing countries for the time being although there is a campaign in China to revive sericulture, and it is believed that there will be a substantial reduction in the Spring crop this year in Japan.

The silk trade in America is adopting a hesitant attitude at present awaiting to see the probable influence of the sale of the Japanese Government stocks. The ultimate effect should be bullish, but Raw Silk, in common with other commodities, continues under the influence of political and financial developments, and until there are convincing signs of a general recovery, no sustained advance in silk prices seems likely.

SPECIAL POLICE
SENT TO GAOL.

JUDGMENT IN ALLEGED EXTORTION CASE.

Nicholas N. Levitsky, Russian, until recently employed by the Shanghai Telephone Co. and a member of the Special Police, was sentenced to a year's imprisonment and fined $300 by the Special District Court for extortion and falsely representing himself as a public officer.

Seven counts of extortion were preferred by police against the prisoner, it being alleged that the prisoner and several Chinese had between January and May visited five Chinese houses, posing themselves as detectives from the Central Police Station to search for narcotics, and extorted from the house inmates sums ranging from $10 to $110 by threatening to arrest the latter who were found in possession of opium.

The police also arrested four Chinese in the case and, of these, one was sentenced to a year's imprisonment and fined $300 by the Court yesterday, another received a prison term of six months and a fine of $100, while the two others were found not guilty and ordered to be released.

Levitsky, when questioned by the Court, denied the charge of extortion, saying that he had visited the various complainants' houses to conduct inquiries about narcotics as he understood from detectives that he would be rewarded if opium was found and reported to police by him. Prisoner asserted he was duped by Tseng, the first Chinese prisoner, who received money from the various complainants without his knowledge.

Counsel for Levitsky were Drs. F. Wilhelm and Francis Liu while Mr. S. C. Chien, Assistant Municipal Advocate, conducted the prosecution for the Municipal Police.

FUTURE OF THE
CITY HALL.CROWN TO RESUME POSSESSION.

BIG REBUILDING PLAN.

The Government has decided to resume possession of the City Hall site and a draft ordinance to that effect has been published in the Gazette, and will shortly be introduced into the Legislative Council.

The ordinance states that:

"The Indenture of Crown Lease of Marine Lot number eighty-two dated the sixth day of March, 1863, and made between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, of the one part, and Alexander Turing, John Macdonald and Phineas Ryrie, of the other part, is determined; and the premises together with all buildings now standing thereon revert to the Crown free from any restriction whatever, and the Governor shall have power to deal with the same and to dispose of the same for building or any other purpose."

All rights and claims, etc. are absolutely extinguished and determined.

Money and Exhibits.

The treasurer of the Committee, hitherto known as the City Hall Committee, shall pay to the Colonial Treasurer any unexpended balance remaining of the Committee's funds; and the Colonial Treasurer shall transfer such balance (if any) to the general revenue of the Colony.

The City Hall Committee also has to hand over the furniture, fittings, book-cases, books, show-cases, specimens, exhibits etc., of the City Hall, including the library and museum, to the Director of Public Works who shall dispose of them, or any of them, as the Governor in Council may direct.

The Original Lessees.

Under the heading "Objects and Reasons" the history of the City Hall is reviewed.

"By Indenture of Crown Lease the Lot was granted by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, subject to the payment of the nominal sum of five dollars and reserved rental of one dollar per annum for the term of 999 years from the March 1, 1866, to three individuals as lessees—A. Turing, J. Macdonald and Phineas Ryrie."

The Lease made it very clear that the place was to be used only for the purposes of a City Hall, under pain of resumption by the crown.

"It is believed that of the three lessees the last survivor was Phineas Ryrie, who in Suit No. 93 of 1890 unsuccessfully claimed an injunction against the Government from proceeding with the Praya reclamation opposite Marine Lot 82, and who died on February 21, 1892. Letters of Administration of his will were granted on April 14, 1892, to A. W. Walkinshaw, attorney for C. Carey Smith, one of the trustees of the will. The Letters of Administration were not registered against the title in the Land Office and since that date none of the representatives of the lessees seem to have concerned themselves with the property in any way."

The Finances.

The buildings appear to have been erected by public subscription commencing in 1866, each individual, firm or corporation subscribing $100 received a so-called "ordinary share," and 210 of such "shares" of a total nominal value of $21,000 were issued to 61 "shareholders." As the building proceeded it was found that the sum subscribed was insufficient and Sir Robert Jardine, whose firm held fifteen "ordinary shares" appears then to have subscribed $50,000 and to have received 106 so-called "preference shares" of various denominations but totalling $50,000.

If these "shareholders" are to be regarded as an association for the purpose of carrying on any business having for its object the acquisition of gain by its individual members it will be illegal under the Companies Ordinances of 1865 and 1911. No interest or turn has ever been paid, however, to the holders of any of these shares, the whole income, supplemented by occasional government grants, having been devoted to the upkeep and improvement of the building, with the exception of a small reserve fund which now amounts to about $4,000.

"The buildings have been managed by a committee which appears (Continued at top of next column)

RECEPTION TO DR.
AND MRS. NEW.VIEWS ON AMALGAMATION OF ASSOCIATIONS.

A reception was held at the Chinese Merchants' Club on Saturday evening at which Dr. W. S. New, first President of the Chinese Medical Association, was the guest of honour together with his wife and two sisters. He was entertained by the Hong Kong Branch of the Chinese Medical Association.

In welcoming Dr. New, who is on a brief visit from Shanghai gathering information for the amalgamation of the National Medical Association of China and the Chinese Medical Association, Dr. Arthur Woo stated that Dr. New had remarked some time ago that Hong's response to the call for help for the wounded in Shanghai was the first one. Mrs. New, he said, had backed her husband up in every way, making a model kitchen in the hospital in Shanghai.

Association's History.

Reviewing the history of the Chinese Medical Association, Dr. New said that Western medicine was first introduced to China by friends from Europe and America several years ago. Missionary doctors came to China and the China Medical Missionaries' Association was formed, but there were certain difficulties as not all the Chinese doctors were missionaries.

In 1915 the National Medical Association of China was organised and served for the requirements and needs of their national medical practitioners. In the meantime, however, another association, the Chinese Medical and Pharmaceutical Association was formed. There was the language difficulty generally but the three associations worked hand in hand with each other.

Name Changed.

In 1920, continued the speaker, the Chinese Medical Missionaries Association changed its name to the Chinese Medical Association, so that a great number of doctors who were not missionaries could join. Foreigners were allowed to join and they became National associated members.

Four years ago the question of amalgamation was given taken up keenly, as there were more members in both Associations. Two years later a special group was formed to look into that question. About six months ago, concrete evidence was secured and it was considered desirable to amalgamate. A resolution was to have been passed at a meeting in April this year, but the conference could not be held owing to the Sino-Japanese conflict.

At the close of Dr. New's talk, light refreshments were served and a musical entertainment followed.

to have been elected by the original subscribers with power to add to its number. None of those originally elected remain, the present members having been co-opted as occasion arose. The senior member in Hong Kong of the firm of Jardine, Matheson and Co., is chairman of the committee.

Present State of Building.

"The buildings are old and the committee are now faced with the problem of having to spend a sum of money far in excess of any that they are in a position to command to modernise them and to put them into a proper state of repair and of safety against fire or into the state required by law for buildings to which the public have access. They have therefore closed the premises and it becomes necessary for the Government to intervene."

"In all the circumstances of the case it is considered better for the Government to resume possession of the property by means of an ad hoc Ordinance rather than to proceed under the powers reserved by the Crown Lease."

"The Future."

"It is not the intention of the Government to convert a City Hall on this site, part of which will be sold and part developed to accord with a general scheme of town planning; but as a part of that scheme, it is the intention of the Government to make provision for public amenities of the kind hitherto provided by the Committee of the City Hall."

WASTE—AND FOLLY.

[TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONG KONG DAILY PRESS."]

SIR—Is it not deplorable that during the present water shortage, the poorer class Chinese—who are the worst sufferers, make no attempt to assist the authorities and themselves.

During Thursday's heavy storm, and after it had been raining steadily for half an hour and all roofs must have been thoroughly clean, quantities of water were running to waste down broken "rain-water pipes." Hundreds of tins could have been filled with clean rain water along Des Vœux Road during the storm and yet no one took advantage of the opportunity, though the usual queues were waiting for the water to be turned on at the street fountains.—Yours, etc., G.A.P.

Hong Kong, June 4, 1932.

THT LATE MR. MANUK:
AN APPRECIATION.

[TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONG KONG DAILY PRESS."]

"SIR,—The news of the passing on of Mr. Manuk, has just reached me, and as he was a great friend of mine, I feel I must write a few words of appreciation.

I have known Mr. Manuk for only a few years, but during that time I have learnt from him more than I have from anyone else, of the "realities of existence." His knowledge of Spiritual Truth was greater than that of anyone I have ever known, and my chief regret is that I did not more often avail myself of his willingness to help, for no matter how busy he was, he never failed to respond when called upon to teach or to lend.

His mind was like a vast store house of knowledge, and his inspiring conversation, gave one glimpses into the spiritual universe, beside which "ordinary existence" paled into insignificance.

My heart goes out in gratitude for the friendship and guidance of so great a soul.—Yours, etc., K.H.B.

AWARDED.

MR. JAMES MCLEOD.

It is notified in the Government Gazette that His Majesty the King has been pleased to award the Imperial Service Medal to Mr. James McLeod, lately Chief Warder, Victoria Gaol Hong Kong.

Mr. McLeod left for Home on retirement on November 7 last. He entered the prison service in the Colony in 1901 and took up his duties as Principal Warder, having been previously connected with prison service at Home. In 1909 and again in 1922 he was acting Chief Warder and in 1927 he was promoted to the position of Chief Warder.

Mr. McLeod was a prominent mason and was also a member of the Police Club's lawn bowls team. His many friends will join us in congratulating him on this well-deserved honour.

KONG MOON NOTES.

CITY OF KAU KONG'S
BENEFACTOR.BUILDS ORPHANAGE AND HOSPITAL.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Kong Moon, June 2.

Mr. Sham Pak Ming of Hong Kong passed through Kong Moon recently on his way to and from the city of Kau Kong. Mr. Sham is the owner of the s.s. Yuet On, now on the Hong Kong-Kong Moon run. It is reported that he is the main promoter of the new public highway which is to be constructed from Pak Kai (port of Kong Moon) to Kau Kong along the west bank of the West River.

In the rapidly developing city of Kau Kong, Mr. Sham is manifesting his interest in the public well-being of the community. He is mainly responsible for the establishment of a hospital and orphanage in that city. The hospital is called the "Kau Tai I Yen" and is mainly for women.

Dr. Bessie Chan, a recent graduate in medicine from the Hong Kong University, has been in charge of this hospital for about four months. Unfortunately for Kau Kong, Dr. Chan has recently accepted a position in Peiping in connection with the P.U.M.C., and left Kau Kong on Wednesday, June 1, for Hong Kong. After spending a brief holiday at her home in Hankow, she will proceed to Peiping.

Up-to-date Orphanage.

We had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Sham in his orphanage in Kau Kong. He is temporarily using a large ancestral hall on the east side of main street as a headquarters for the orphanage. At present there are 105 boys in residence.

Mr. Sham has engaged several young men as teachers. The boys are all in school, the class-rooms being in close proximity to the dormitories. The boys are all dressed in neat uniforms, and one is quickly apprised of the fact that Mr. Sham knows quite as much about school management as he knows about being president of a bank or successfully operating steamships, and other large enterprises.

Plans for New Hospital.

Mr. Sham has definite plans for a new hospital and orphanage, the site having already been secured in a good locality in the city. The plan is to erect a building which will accommodate 500 (fifty) boys. The cost of this new project will be not less than $100,000.

It is a pleasure to meet a man like Mr. Sham who is devoting his splendid abilities and his wealth to such worthy objects. The City of Kau Kong is to be congratulated in being able to claim him as a citizen.

New Highways.

It is hoped that the "buses" will be running very soon on the widened and newly-paved main street running from the wharf on the West River through the length of the extended city of Kau Kong. The highway is now completed connecting Kau Kong with the Kong Moon-Tatshan motor road and "buses" now are operating from Kong Moon to Koo Low on the West River. It is expected that before the end of this year it will be possible to travel by bus from Kong Moon to Tatshan, passing through Sha Ping, Koo Low, Kau Kong, Lung Shan and other large centres. These splendid highways making possible the use of motor cars, buses and motor trucks are rapidly revolutionizing life in South China, and bringing to China a new day of development and improved communications.

CONSTABLE FOUND DEAD.

TRAGIC DISCOVERY IN KOWLOON.

Suicide is indicated by the discovery on Saturday morning at the back of the Po Hing Theatre of the body of a young Indian constable, Charnag Din. There was a bullet wound through the head of the deceased and a Service revolver was lying beside the body, still attached to the lanyard.

The constable was attached to the main division at Tsin Sha Tsui and went on duty at midnight. He should have returned to this Station at 4 a.m., but when he failed to put in an appearance at 6 a.m., a "missing" message was circulated with the result that the body was discovered.

GOVT. TO CONTROL
BUS SERVICES.TO BE PUT TO TENDER
NEXT YEAR.LOCAL TRANSPORT UNDER ONE CONCERN.

Unified control of the Colony's motor omnibus services is indicated in a Government communique issued on Saturday morning. By the tenth of June next year, all existing rights and privileges will expire and the Government contemplates offering all the services to tender, presumably to the highest bidder. The announcement is tantamount to twelve months' notice to the existing licence holders.

The Official communique, outlining the Government scheme states:—

As from June 10, 1932, when all the licences and rights of existing Companies concerned ceased and determined, the Government proposes to let by Tender exclusive rights (which will not include the existing tramway rights of the Hong Kong Tramway Company or the Peak Tram Company) to operate Road Mechanical Transport of passengers where payment is by the seat occupied.

Conditions on the following lines will be included in the Tender Form:—

1. A royalty on gross receipts in lieu of the present seating tax and licence charge.
2. Government control of routes, stopping places, and time tables.
3. Maximum fares.
4. All vehicles to be of British make.

5. If the present licensed companies shall so desire, the successful tenderer or tenderers may be required to purchase, under some method of valuation to be determined by the Government, all suitable and effective vehicles, repair plant, and machinery, lands, buildings and materials used by the present licensed companies immediately before the June 10, 1932, for the purpose of their undertakings.

If the successful tender shall cover the whole of the Colony then the successful tenderer may be required to purchase such things as aforesaid used for the whole Colony, but if the successful tender shall cover part only of the Colony then the successful tenderer may be required to purchase only such things as aforesaid as in the opinion of the Government are used for that part of the Colony covered by the tender.

On any such valuation as aforesaid no allowance will be made for goodwill.

Where any successful tenderer is required to purchase as aforesaid, the decision of the Government as to whether anything to be purchased is suitable and effective shall be final and conclusive.

The opportunity will be given for a single tender covering the whole Colony, or for separate tenders each covering one division of the Colony only. The divisions contemplated are:—

1. Hong Kong Island.
2. The mainland including the New Territories.

Detailed Tender Forms are in course of preparation.

NEW HOME FOR KOWLOON GOLF CLUB.

MAJOR-GENERAL SANDILANDS PERFORMS OPENING CEREMONY.CLUB OFFICIALS EXPRESS INDEBTEDNESS TO MILITARY AUTHORITIES.

H.E. Major-General Sandilands, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., on Saturday officially opened the Kowloon Golf Club's new building on the Kowloon City Links. There was a very large gathering at the opening ceremony which took place at 3 p.m.

The new building has been erected on the old site and embodies the old Army shelter which has been used as a locker room since the founding of Club on its present site. The building is equipped with electric light, fans, and other up-to-date appliances. A room to the right of the main hall has been set aside for the ladies' section, and is modernly and tastefully furnished.

Major-General Sandilands was accompanied by Lieut. J. Baskerville Glegg, A.D.C., and was met on arrival at the Clubhouse by Mr. J. H. Hunt (President). He was then presented with a silver key by Mr. O. B. Raven with which he opened the new building.

SPACIOUS AND MODERN STRUCTURE.

In welcoming the General and the guests, Mr. J. H. Hunt said:—It gives us great pleasure to welcome Your Excellency to our Club this afternoon, and I should also like to extend a hearty welcome to all the other friends who are our guests on this pleasing occasion.

Most of you are familiar with the history of this Golf Club—the Press has been kind enough to give it good notice lately. When I joined the Club in the early days of 1929 we had only the locker room. While it served a useful purpose it was not very palatial. Then we built on another room, thus making a presentable Clubhouse. After a few years a typhoon came, and but for this upheaval we would not be here this afternoon, for this typhoon almost destroyed our premises, so even a typhoon has its uses. The increased membership and the greater interest of our supporters justified the erection of a new house.

You will realise how much we depend on the co-operation and good wishes of the Military Authorities for the well-being of the Club. Since your arrival in the Colony, Your Excellency, we have been extremely fortunate in this relationship and we are deeply indebted to you for all you have done. Both by the improvements to the road and to the approaches and by the arrangements for firing on the ranges so that the course is much more accessible than formerly. Then to crown your interest you have kindly honoured us with your presence this afternoon. A record will be placed in the house of this ceremony so that future G.O.C.'s may take the hint and act on the precedent set by you during your Command. I understand that precedents count a lot in the Army and you, Sir, have established a good one here.

Loyal Backing of Members.

I should also like to take this opportunity of saying how gratifying it has been to the Committee to have the loyal backing of the members in this undertaking—they not only subscribed towards the purchase of the furniture but came forward readily with promises of loans, should they be required. We have no fear for the future of a Club with such interested members. We are not unmindful of the work of the Committee in this early days of the Club and it must be pleasing to them to see how their old Club has progressed. They left a goodly heritage for the later Committees to build on.

We wish to thank the Architects, Messrs. Raven & Basto, and the contractors, Messrs. Sang Lee & Co., for their work in the erection of this house. We can all see how well that work was done.

We have now a comfortable place in which to console ourselves after our games, a place to restore our mental and moral balance, for golf, as we all know, is a great test of nerves and character. We are very glad that at least we can offer the ladies a room of their own and we shall expect them to arrange competitions and, maybe, they will eventually show us the fine points of golf.

G.O.C.'S SPEECH.

H.E. Major-General Sandilands, addressing the gathering, said:—I regard it as a very great honour to have been invited to open your new Clubhouse this afternoon. I would like to thank your President, Mr. Hunt, for the kind remarks which he has made about me, and I only hope that they are justified.

It is true that I have always taken considerable interest in the activities of your Club, and have done my best to ensure that our military interferes as little as possible with your golf.

I think that you will agree that the road to the range has made immense difference to our mutual comfort and convenience. For this you have to thank the Royal Engineers, who have also been responsible for making considerable improvements to the Range itself, which in fact bears no resemblance to what it was when I came here in 1929.

Golf links and rifle ranges have a close resemblance in that they both afford unlimited opportunity for reputations to be made or marred in the course of a few hours.

Language on the Links.

In fact, although I have always heard that the members of the Kowloon Golf Club bear most exemplary characters, yet I can scarcely believe that the language used by at least some of them who miss their shots and tear up their cards, does not bear a striking resemblance to that used by our soldiers when they miss the target or are declared third-class shots. (Laughter.)

I can assure you, Ladies and Gentlemen, that so long as I remain in Command, I will continue to look after your interests and the Kowloon Golf Club may rest assured that my successor, General Borrett, who is a good sportsman, will do the same.

In conclusion, I would like to congratulate all those responsible for producing such a charming little Clubhouse which it is my privilege to have opened.

Addressing the gathering, Mr. J. D. Thomson, Vice-President of the Kowloon Golf Club, said:—It is my privilege to rise on behalf of the officers and members of this Club to thank your Excellency for coming here to-day and for opening this, our new Clubhouse. We know that the call upon your time is rather severe and we very much appreciate the fact that you have seen fit to accept our invitation. Mr. Hunt has made some observations about the past of the Club and as an old member, I can fully endorse all he says. The relations between the military authorities and the officers of this Club has been very sincere. They have assisted us in every possible way and in fact they have gone out of their way more than once to help us and I hope that the younger members of the Club will bear this in mind because they will probably form the principal officers of the Club in the future.

On behalf of the members and Officers of the Club, I thank you for your presence here to-day.

Hon. Mr. Shenton's Recollections.

The Hon. Mr. W. E. L. Shenton, an honorary member of the Club, in a brief speech traced the growth of the Club and recalled the old days when golf on the Peninsula was played in King's Park on the grounds of the then United Services Recreation Club. He said that it was on April 23, 1924, that Sir Reginald Stubbs, then Governor of Hong Kong, officially opened the present links of the Kowloon Golf Club by driving the first ball.

The Club to-day boasted 250 members and 45 registered ladies who enjoyed all the facilities afforded by the Club. His membership, he said, was due in no small measure to the fact that the atmosphere of informality pervaded the Club. That was as much appreciated by the conclusion of the speeches.

SPANISH AIRMAN'S
MISHAP.UNDERCARRIAGE STRUT BROKEN AT KAI TACK.

A mishap to the plane of Mr. Fernando Roiny Loring, the Spanish aviator, who is flying from Madrid to Manila, occurred at Kai Tack aerodrome on Saturday morning, as a result of which the airman will have to delay his departure for Manila for several days.

It appears that Mr. Loring was taking across the aerodrome before taking off for a test flight when one of the plane's wheels sank into a patch of boggy ground and strained the undercarriage of the machine. Had the airman attempted to get the wheel clear by the use of his engine the machine would have nosed over, so the services of a car were requisitioned and a line was made fast to a strut of the undercarriage. As soon as the strain was placed on the tow rope, however, the strut to which the rope was attached broke, and after being finally extricated the machine had to be taken back to the hangar for repairs.

Extensive Overhaul.

Since his arrival here Mr. Loring's plane has been extensively overhauled, the fuel tanks having been resoldered consequent upon leakage which developed after his departure from Fort Bayard. If the repairs to the undercarriage are completed in time Mr. Loring hopes to "take off" for Manila to-morrow or Wednesday.

The machine is a high wing Loring monoplane, with a five cylinder Kinner radial air-cooled engine. It has a cruising speed of 140 kilometers per hour and a top speed of 130 kilometers per hour. The machine is fitted with dual control, there being two cockpits side by side.

The aviator has been flying for eight years, and is a cousin of Dr. Loring, the well known Spanish aircraft manufacturer. He has had much experience as a test pilot and as a pilot on aerial survey work for the Spanish Government. While in Hong Kong Mr. Loring has been the guest of Senior J. Gascon, Ch. Gonzalez de Bernedo, Consul for Guatemala and Assistant Spanish Trade Commissioner.

mentioned by the younger members as the fact that the more experienced players were always ready and willing to offer their advice and assistance to the poorer players.

Mr. Shenton, on behalf of the members of the Club, thanked the military authorities for all they have done. He also thanked the Secretary of the Hong Kong Golf Club for his untiring assistance from time to time. He thanked the architects for the part they played in making the new Clubhouse a reality and the President for the interest he had taken in the work of construction, mentioning that Mr. Hunt had worked in co-operation with the architects and had personally superintended the decorations. He also thanked the General Committee, the Building Committee and the Finance Committee and mentioned in particular Messrs. A. T. Braley, T. V. Harrison and E. O. Murphy.

Tea was served in the Club at the conclusion of the speeches.

LUXURY OR NECESSITIES?

THE Government's decision to resume possession of the City Hall, and sell the site should meet with general approval. It would be a wasteful anomaly in these times for a piece of land of such commercial value and potential usefulness to remain immobilised by a structure that has not only outgrown its use, but has actually been condemned as unsafe. The Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corporation is generally assumed to be interested in the site and will doubtless pay a very fair price for that great institution and to the Colony. There should, moreover, be no difficulty in putting any of the land that remains to an equally satisfactory purpose, with proportionate advantage to the Treasury.

The Government's Gazette announces that it is not the intention of the Government to re-erect a City Hall on this site, but "to make provision elsewhere for public amenities of the kind hitherto provided by the Committee of the City Hall."

That should prove an easy task, the said amenities having been reduced to a shabby public library, and perhaps the sorriest museum in the British Empire.

The question arises as to whether we need a City Hall? The old structure for many years fulfilled a necessary function. There we listened to the admirable productions of the Hong Kong A.D.C. and the Philharmonic Society, and we had a fairly constant flow of travelling theatrical companies. Famous musicians played to half-empty houses, tore their hair and swore "never again," but the indistinguishable Mr. ALFRED STOK had a "new season," to announce every year. Once each winter the whole building was transformed into a piece of Scotland and the European community held high revelry. Dances and theatre shows, occasional meetings and lectures kept the custodians busy, and the building held its own in the life of the place.

Customs and manners change. St. Andrew's Ball has become the St. Andrew's Society dance, and like other affairs of that kind arranged by national societies, is adequately lodged at the Peninsula Hotel. Talking pictures and the economic depression have combined to kill travelling companies, while distinguished musicians now fall into two classes: those who fill a picture theatre, and those who are wiser to book the Helena May Institute. The latter building, or St. John's Cathedral Hall, is quite large enough for the audience that any itinerant lecturer or publicist is likely to attract. During the last five years Miss MAUDE ROYDEN alone of our visitors needed anything bigger to accommodate her hearers. In fact, if we had a City Hall worthy of the Colony, it is difficult to see what we should do with it, beyond admiring it from the outside and feeling pride of possession. It is a British tradition that "you must have a town hall," but conditions are different out East.

The municipal building of a modern town includes a police court, a sessions and assize court, public library, offices of the municipal officials, the Mayor's parlour, besides the main hall, where the local Members and their rivals, the Chairman of the Watch Committee, and other ladies and gentlemen who have messages to give the world, can enjoy themselves to their hearts' content. Imperial and municipal politics still play a big part in the life of the Homeland, and they are luxuries that require to be housed. In Hong Kong, however, we have a dearth of interest in oratory, and a Town Hall would remain woefully underworked. There is much to be said for the provision of a public library, and this might even be made a paying concern if public tastes were correctly assessed by the purchasing committee, but there is no call for a costly and pretentious building. As regards the Museum, learned professors of the University might find treasures amid the junk, and then, what they don't want for University collections, could well be burnt. A Raffles museum is worth having, but half-hearted efforts in that direction are useless.

There are many real and pressing needs in the Colony which should have precedence over a City Hall. This is not the time for window dressing. When we have modern British schools, instead of antiquated structures, adequate prisons and hospitals, some kind of pauper accommodation, and, above all, a proper water supply, it will be quite time enough to consider whether we need, and can afford, a City Hall worthy of the beauty, the wealth, and the importance of the Colony.

CHINESE MINISTER TO BRITAIN.

REPORTED INTENTION TO PROCEED IMMEDIATELY.

Nanking, May 29.—The Jih Jih news agency says that at yesterday's meeting of the foreign relations commission, Mr. Quo Tai Chi announced his decision to proceed to London immediately to take up the post of Chinese Minister to Britain. It is also understood that General Chiang Tso Pin is returning to Tokyo as Chinese Minister there.

The news agency states that Dr. Lo Wen Kan resigned as Foreign Minister and recommended Mr. Quo Tai Chi as his successor but Mr. Quo refused to allow his name to be considered. The commission, it is stated, urged Dr. Lo Wen Kan to remain at his post as Foreign Minister.

Tale of the Day.

Tennis Club Treasurer: "I want to impress upon you that it is absolutely essential all the subscriptions should be in before I go away on my holidays."

English Hermit of the Bush.

An Englishman, who, after a life of adventure on land and sea, has built himself a retreat in the bush not far from Balmoral, Victoria, is the wonder of the Gippsland Lakes district.

He is Mr. Jack Brown, locally reputed to be a Cambridge graduate. Mr. Brown has been a sailor and a soldier, built his own house, made his own wooden leg, is his own blacksmith, makes walking sticks and draught sets from the backbone of a shark.

Smokes a pipe with a stem made from the bone of a pelican's wing. In a comfortable house which he has built near the entrance to the beautiful Gippsland lakes, Mr. Brown lives with his books and his pet bird.

From Buckinghamshire. On one wall of his home hangs a painting which he made of the sailing ship Sophocles, in which he served his apprenticeship at sea, while on a mantelpiece in a glass case is a model of another windjammer in which he sailed.

Around the house the many beehives, while in a shady glade is the home-made forge. Mr. Brown's pet bird, which he allows to fly free, will always come to eat from his hand.

Among his treasures are prizes he won at a college in Buckinghamshire many years ago.

Asked how he came to make his own wooden leg, Mr. Brown explained that he had lost a leg in the Boer War. As the wooden leg he was given was not comfortable, he made a better one for himself.

"With my bees and my books," says this philosopher of the bush, "I have always something to do. If I do not feel inclined to make walking sticks, I can get music out of my old violin."

Skipper Who Had No Fear. Captain J. W. Holmes, one of the best-known clipper ship captains, has died at his bungalow home on Shooter's Hill, Woolwich, S.E. The bungalow was named Cimba, after his most famous command.

He was one of the later wool clipper, and when he took over the command in 1895 he had already a great reputation for speed. He carried on in full sail through anything.

He spared his men as little as he did his ship, but they admired him in spite of hard work and strict discipline.

On one occasion he is reputed to have passed the Cutty Sark without difficulty in a strong wind.

Geraniums Round the Poop. When he was captain of the Leucadia the whole watch, on being released for the comparative comfort and warmth of the forecastle, preferred to spend the night huddled on the roof of the deckhouse rather than run the risk of going forward.

In his spare time he painted pictures of ships.

When in command he always had geraniums round the poop in the tropics.

He was born in Deal, which, he always stoutly maintained, was the finest nursery for seamen in the British Isles, and he is to be buried among many fellow seafarers in Deal Cemetery on Monday.

Order of the Bath. General The Hon. Everard Baring, chairman of the Southern Railway, who has just died at the age of 86, was the brother of the late and of the present Lord Revelstoke.

Formerly he was military secretary to Lord Curzon in India. After one characteristic passage of arms with this exalted chief, the two men understood each other perfectly.

One morning Lord Curzon sent an urgent message demanding the presence of Colonel Baring in his bath. Message succeeded message at intervals of two minutes until the Colonel appeared.

"Why didn't you obey my orders?" asked the irate Viceroyn.

"I always obey your orders, sir," was the quiet reply, "and if it is your wish that I should come with nothing on I shall do so in future."

Not Such a Mystery Expresses. Pangbourne (Berks) is laughing about a closely guarded secret which has just been revealed.

For the first "Hikers' Mystery Express" a couple living in the village travelled to London to make the trip. It was only when they had been in the "mystery" train for some time that they discovered it was bound for their native village!

They did not trouble to make the return journey to town.

Government House Reception. A very charming hospitality distinguished the reception given on Friday evening at Government House in honour of His Majesty's birthday. The formality of shaking hands with His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government and Mrs. Southern was carried out with the precision and dignity suitable to the occasion, after which the guests were free to wander through the ground floor of Government House and the delightfully illuminated grounds.

His Excellency and Mrs. Southern moved among their guests with recognition and a word for every one, and His Excellency personally supervised the preparation of the ball-room floor for the pleasure of those who wished to dance.

For the others there were rooms set out with bridge tables and a continual programme of music and singing by various military bands in the grounds. Refreshments were served in half a dozen or more accessible places, and also on the roof garden, a most attractive retreat which was all too soon discovered by large numbers of people.

His Excellency and Mrs. Southern somehow managed to give a real "home side" atmosphere perhaps through the servants were not much in evidence—even the weather appeared to give a hand to help them since despite the heat there was something very familiar in the dripping trees and "soggy" lawns.

According to an advertisement published in Chinese papers the Shanghai People's Anti-Armistice Agreement and the North-Eastern Volunteers Support Federation inform the public that a subscription movement which will take the form of street collections and individual contributions has been initiated for the support of the North-Eastern Volunteers. The two organisations urge that, during the present critical moment, substantial support should be rendered to the North-Eastern Volunteers, who have been resisting the Japanese troops in Manchuria.

With regard to the proposal to grant amnesty to political offenders, the Chinese papers understand that the Ministries of Justice, Interior and War have agreed to recommend to the National Government (1) That all warrants issued for the arrest of political offenders shall be cancelled forthwith; and (2) That reports on all political offenders at present imprisoned shall be sent to the Central Government for examination with a view to the release of such persons. In this connection, it is of proposed to send about 2,000 long-term convicts to the north-western frontiers for colonisation purposes. A model prison is being established at Paotachen to accommodate them.

According to a Nanking telegram received in Shanghai, representatives of the Federation of Shanghai Street Unions and three other public bodies have submitted an appeal to the Executive Yuan requesting that the City Government of Greater Shanghai be instructed to publish a proclamation relating to the remission of rents of houses within the jurisdiction of the Chinese municipality. The members were received by a Counsellor of the Yuan, who promised to transmit their views to Mr. Wang Ching Wei, President of the Yuan, for consideration.

Judgment in the sum of $170.08 and costs was given plaintiff by Judge P. Grant Jones in H.M. Supreme Court in the case of C. Coalter v. P. S. Gibbons. Plaintiff told the Court that he was employed by defendant at $100 per month, plus commission. After a few months, defendant's company ceased to exist, he said, and his salary, amounting to $100, was unpaid. Defendant claimed that plaintiff had collected some bills for him and had retained a certain amount to cover his wages. The hearing was adjourned from last week, when defendant said that he would bring evidence to support his claim. Defendant, however, failed to appear at the specified hour yesterday, so judgment was given before he arrived.

AMERICA HARD UP! $800,000,000 SHORT ON BUDGET

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

NEW YORK, June 5. Wall Street is sceptical about Washington's claim to have balanced the Budget, according to the New York Evening Post. The Evening Post pointed out that after allowing for President Hoover's demand for a reduction of $300,000,000, the Budget for 1933 will amount to $4,000,000,000. The total taxation yield in the present fiscal year is expected to be under $2,000,000,000. Assuming there is a similar yield in 1933, plus $1,119,000,000 provided in the supplementary Revenue Bill, the total will be under $3,138,000,000, leaving a deficit of $860,000,000.

As it seems inevitable that additional large sums will be appropriated for public relief, Wall Street expects the United States will be compelled to borrow between $1,500,000,000 and $2,500,000,000.

DOLE OPPOSED BY PRES. HOOVER

SECURITY INVESTMENT CORPORATION

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

NEW YORK, June 5. Mr. Pierpont Morgan has announced the formation of a great security investment corporation the object of which is for supporting the Bond market. $100,000,000 has already been subscribed.

WASHINGTON, June 5. In the House the Ways and Means Committee reported favourably on the Garner Bill appropriating $2,300,000,000 for the relief of unemployment. President Hoover and Mr. Ogden Mills both bitterly opposed the measure.

The Democratic Caucus Representatives voted in favour of supporting the Garner Bill (sponsored by the speaker, W. Garner) in its entirety.

Economic Conference.

The United States Government favours the wide membership proposed for the World Economic Conference including Russia, the Argentine and Spain, while as the question of the stabilisation of silver will presumably be discussed, Mexico, Peru and China and other silver users should be represented.

OVERNIGHT IMPROVEMENT IN AMERICA

LONDON, June 4. The Overnight improvement in America had a general beneficial effect on the Stock Exchange, and renewal of conversion rumours helped British Government securities in a fresh advance.

REVENUE BILL PASSED

WASHINGTON, June 5. The House of Representatives has passed the Revenue Bill.

THE HOOVER MORATORIUM

BRITAIN SIGNS AGREEMENT

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

WASHINGTON, June 5. The British Ambassador, Sir F. Lindley, signed an agreement at the U.S. Treasury by which the British Government formally agrees to repay $150,000,000 dollars. The payment of which was postponed under the Hoover Moratorium, over a period of 10 years at four per cent. interest.

Italy has also entered into a similar agreement, and the Treasury expects that France and other signatories to the Moratorium Agreement, who have not yet signed, will sign next week.

SETTLEMENT OF MALTESE DISPUTE

FAVOURABLE PRESS COMMENT

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

The settlement of the long standing Maltese dispute is the subject of favourable Press comment. The London Times says: "There is now no reason for any further delay in fixing the date of the elections, or for prolonging the suspension of the constitution. On the other hand there is every reason for congratulating the Maltese people on the restoration of international peace."

REBEL COUP D'ETAT IN CHILE

Englishman May Rule A S. American Republic

PRES. MONTERO RESIGNS

COL. M. GROVE LEADS AIR FORCE REBELS

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

SANTIAGO DE CHILE, June 5.

THREE WERE KILLED AND SIXTY WOUNDED IN A RIOT NEAR THE PRESIDENTIAL PALACE. THE EX-MILITARY ATTACHE AT LONDON, COL. MARMADUKE GROVE, THE SON OF A CORNISH EMIGRANT, IS LEADING THE REBEL FLYING OFFICERS.

COLONEL VERGARA, WHO WAS APPOINTED TO SUPERSEDE COL. GROVE, WENT TO THE AVIATION SCHOOL, FIRED HIS REVOLVER AND WOUNDED A MAJOR BUT WAS DISARMED.

LATER.

PRESIDENT MONTERO HAS VOLUNTARILY RESIGNED. REVOLUTIONARY TROOPS HAVE Poured IN TO THE CITY AND CAPTURED THE PRESIDENT'S PALACE.

VALPARAISO, June 5.

MARTIAL LAW HAS BEEN DECLARED TO DEAL WITH THE SITUATION.

GOVERNMENT TROOPS HAVE SURROUNDED THE AVIATION SCHOOL.

LATER.

The romantic fact of a Cornishman's son becoming one of the rulers of a South American Republic has emerged from the swift rebel coup. President Montero has handed over control to a military junta composed of Colonel Grove, two generals and Davila, ex-Chilean Ambassador to the United States.

SOCIETY MURDER IN LONDON

American Singer's Wife On Serious Charge

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, June 4.

A crowd of fashionable members of Society were at the Westminster Police Court when Mrs. Elvira Barney, the beautiful blond daughter of Sir John Mullens, was remanded for one week on a charge of the murder of Scott Stephen, son of a prominent banker after a cocktail party in a Knightsbridge flat on May 31.

Mrs. Barney was supported in the dock by Lady Mullens, and a wardress.

A detective testified as to the arrest of prisoner last night at 8, Belgrave Square. Mrs. Barney replied to the charge: "I didn't shoot him. I am not guilty." She spent the night in a cell.

There was no more evidence. Prisoner was overcome, but silent. She was removed in a taxicab to Holloway Gaol.

Five Shots After Party.

(Reuter's Special Service.)

LONDON, June 3. Mrs. Elvira Barney, daughter of Sir John Mullens, the Government Broker, has been arrested on a charge of the wilful murder of Michael Scott Stephen, son of a Kent Magistrate, who was found shot dead in her flat on June 1.

Mrs. Barney, the wife of John Sterling Barney, the American singer, who is at present travelling in America.

The discovery of Stephen's body was made after the guests of a cocktail party had left for home, when five shots were heard.

PREMIER'S HEALTH IMPROVES

Owing to a rapid improvement in his health since going to Lloswenmouth a fortnight ago, the Prime Minister has been allowed by his doctors to curtail his vacation by a number of days and will resume work in London next week, leaving Lloswenmouth on Monday.

Mr. E. Chamberlain.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, has also made such good recovery after a cure at Harrogate Spa, that he too is returning to London on Monday.

TROOPING OF THE COLOURS

HUGE CROWD CHEERS THE KING

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUBY, June 4.

In continuation of his sixty-seventh birthday celebrations, H.M. the King this morning took the salute when the brilliant military ceremonial of "Trooping of Colours" by the Brigade of Guards took place on the Horse Guards Parade.

His Majesty rode in procession to the parade ground, accompanied by his sons the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York and the Duke of Gloucester, his cousin Prince Arthur of Connaught, his son-in-law the Earl of Harewood and H.M. the Queen's brother, the Earl of Athone.

The elaborate and brilliant ceremony, performed with immaculate precision which is characteristic of the Guards' Brigade, was witnessed by a huge crowd who enthusiastically cheered the King as he passed.

The Queen and other members of the Royal Family, including her grand-children, together with many Cabinet Ministers, watched the spectacle from the windows of adjacent Government offices.

PRESIDENT HINDENBURG DISSOLVES REICHSTAG

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

BERLIN, June 4. President Paul von Hindenburg has decreed the dissolution of the Reichstag.

The dissolution was declared to avoid the defeat of the new von Papen Government which is faced with a hostile Reichstag. Until the elections, which will probably take place at the end of July, Hindenburg will rule by decree with the advice of the von Papen Cabinet.

MOTOR RACING TRAGEDY.

LEESON'S TERRIBLE CRASH TO DEATH.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, June 4.

Henry Leeson, the motor racing enthusiast, who in everyday life is an Eastbourne butcher, crashed to death at Brooklands to-day when going at 70 miles per hour.

Driving an M.G. Midget car, Leeson was competing in the Junior Car Club's 1,000-mile race, which is the longest and most gruelling motor race in Britain, when he met with disaster.

The car swerved when taking a turn, crashed into the parapet and then bounced into the road landing upside down.

Horried spectators rush to Leeson's aid only to find him dead.

Sir Malcolm Campbell, Lord Howe and other prominent figures in the motor racing world were competing in the race.

Campbell himself later had an anxious moment when a tyre burst.

LADIES' TRIUMPH (Reuter's Special Service.)

LONDON, June 5. The Thousand Miles Handicap Motor Race at Brooklands began yesterday. It was continued to-day and resulted in a triumph for Mrs. Wisdom and Miss Richmond, driving a Riley. Their average was 84.40 M.P.H.

There were twenty-three entrants, including Sir Malcolm Campbell and the Earl of Howe.

FURTHER RIOTING IN INDIA

HINDUS AND MOSLEMS CLASH

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

NEW DELHI, June 4.

According to the leading vernacular newspaper a serious communal riot has broken out at Alwar.

It is reported that a large number of Hindus had collected to inaugurate their god Shivas at the temple outside the City when two men in processions, one connected with the temple and the other celebrating the Muslim anniversary of their saint, Sir dished.

The news is spreading and has resulted in rioting all over the City.

Official Confirmation.

NEW DELHI, June 5.

It is officially confirmed that a Hindu-Muslim riot occurred at Alwar.

State troops were called out. They fired on the rioters killing two and wounding thirty.

Two were killed and 25 wounded in another communal disturbance in the small town of Pundri, Punjab, where Hindus, taking advantage of strained feelings between the Shiah and Sunai sects of the Moslems, attacked them both with knives and Cuthes.

The police restored order. All the victims are Moslems.

CONGRESS LEADER ARRESTED

BOMBAY, June 5. Umashankar Dixit, "the brain behind Congress" in Bombay, was arrested to-day.

He is compared to de Valera of the Black and Tan days. He never slept two nights in the same place and has had hairbreadth escapes from capture. He controlled Congress activities behind the scenes.

SINGAPORE, June 5.

Mr. Sharkey, who was found drowned last Thursday, was not connected with Raffles Hotel.

BRITISH STEEL INDUSTRY

INVESTIGATION COMMITTEE APPOINTED

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, June 3.

Proposals for the re-organisation of the iron and steel industry will be worked out by a National Committee headed by Mr. Charles Mitchell, Chairman of the Dorman Long Company, assisted by district and small specialised committees. It was announced to-day by Sir George May at a meeting of the principals of 40 iron and steel firms and members of the Import Duties Advisory Committee.

Sir George May stated that the committee was convinced that "the main value of the tariff would be to afford the industry an opportunity of putting itself in order on lines best adapted to this country and the diversified nature of the demands which must be met."

Recommend Permanent Tariffs.

He emphasised that if the present abnormal competition continued the Committee would not hesitate to recommend the continuance of the present emergency duties of 34 per cent. as long as it was necessary. Provided that the industry did its part, a permanent tariff would be sufficient to achieve the object in view.

JAPAN AND MANCHURIA

RUMOURS DENIED

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

GENEVA, June 3.

Viscount Saito's initiatory statement yesterday has reassured interest in the Far East and consequently a crop of rumours have arisen. Careful enquiry, however, proves that so far as the League of Nations is concerned there is no new development sufficient to justify an interruption of the revision of the Assembly's programme, particularly since Japan's withdrawal from Shanghai.

The Lytton Commission's report is not expected for some time. It has been ascertained that the Chinese have not made any further application regarding the report of the Lytton Commission's procedure in Manchuria since the request of Dr. W. W. Yen for information on how far Japan had carried out its agreement to withdraw from the Railway.

Lord Lytton suggested nothing of the kind, "was the authoritative response to the enquiry concerning a rumour that Lord Lytton had recommended a Japanese mandate in Manchuria."

THE SHANGHAI AGREEMENT

SAITO'S SPEECH CRITICISED

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

NANKING, June 5.

With reference to Viscount Saito's speech yesterday, a spokesman from the Foreign Office, to-day, stated that the Shanghai Agreement did not limit the movements of Chinese troops, which have perfect freedom to move in Chinese territory.

Chinese troops are now remaining in their original posts, instead of Viscount Saito's allegation that they are the prescribed distance from Shanghai.

He regarded Viscount Saito's statement as unilateral, saying that the causes of the Shanghai incident were due to Japanese aggression, and if the Japanese did not adopt hostile actions nothing untoward could happen at Shanghai.

It is stated that China is willing to attend a round table conference if of the nature of the Washington Conference and aimed at the settlement of Sino-Japanese issues as a whole.

With reference to the Manchukuo, the spokesman declared: At first the Japanese Government denied any active support for the Manchukuo, but now Viscount Saito openly announces Japan's support for the new State. This fact is making Chinese authorities more suspicious of Japanese sincerity in international dealings.

NEW POSITION FOR DR. KOO

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

NANKING, June 5.

According to a local Chinese report, so far unconfirmed officially, Dr. Wellington Koo will probably be appointed Minister to France and delegate to the meeting of the League Assembly in September.

CHINESE POSTAL CHANGES

LUNG TA FU AND CHIEN CHU CHI DISMISSED

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

NANKING, June 5.

Lung Ta Fu, Director of the Postal Department in the Ministry of Communications, and Chien Chu Chi, Director General of Postal Administration have been dismissed.

Lia Shin and Huang Tai Chiu have been appointed as their successors.

CANTON-HANKOW RAILWAY

LOAN FROM BOXER FUNDS SOUGHT

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

NANKING, June 5. It is learned that Ku Meng Yu, Minister of Railways, is negotiating with the British Boxer Indemnity Commission for a loan of $670,000 for the construction of the Canton-Hankow Railway. The work will begin as soon as the loan is approved.

MAOERSHANCHAN RAIDED

RAILWAY OFFICE LOOTED

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

HARBIN, June 4. Following the occupation of Hailun, Japanese forces have cleared all anti-Manchukuo troops from the Hailun-Hailan railway region.

With a heavy guard on board a passenger train left Harbin at noon for Fongran-shenaya.

Irregulars to the number of 300 raided and looted the Maoershanchan Station taking all the cash in the railway office. They also abducted a railway employee.

JAPANESE OCCUPY HAILUN

HARBIN, June 4. Continuing the successes which they have achieved during the past week the Japanese forces, after inflicting many casualties upon the anti-Manchukuo troops, defending Hailun, succeeded in occupying the city.

The anti-Manchukuo forces are retreating in a northerly direction, pursued by Japanese bombing planes, which are adding to their confusion.

22 KILLED BY BOMB IN PENGPU

PUNISHMENT OF AVIATOR DEMANDED

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

SHANGHAI, June 4. Twenty-two were killed and forty seriously injured at Pengpu yesterday when, according to a despatch to the Shun Pao, a bomb fell in one of the main streets from a plane returning from operations against bandits.

The inhabitants of Pengpu are seething with indignation, and are demanding severe punishment of the aviator concerned.

LEAGUE COMMISSION

MANCHURIA TOUR ENDS

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

PEIPING, June 4.

Lord Lytton and his colleagues on the League Commission are expected to arrive here to-morrow night from Manchuria where they have been investigating conditions for some time.

Japan Would Welcome Dr. Koo.

TOKYO, June 4. The Foreign Office has notified the Lytton Commission that Japan would welcome a visit from Dr. Wellington Koo, provided it was made clear to him that he was not coming to Japan for the purpose of investigating conditions here, as the Commission was appointed to investigate in China and Manchuria only.

Commission to Inspect Chinchow.

MUKDEN, June 4. The Commission is on its way to Peiping by train and will make a brief inspection of Chinchow en route.

ARRIVAL AT PEIPING

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

PEIPING, June 5.

The Lytton Commission arrived at nine this evening.

They received an informal welcome from Chang Hsueh Liang and a large gathering of prominent Chinese and foreign residents.

The Commissioners will remain in Peiping for a fortnight, then they leave for Japan, returning to China later to compile their report, probably at Peking.

Lord Lytton with several Commissioners will go to Tsingtao by train in the next few days on a brief visit, after which they will return to Peiping.

Week End Sport.

HOME CRICKET RESULTS

HAMPSHIRE SCORES SURPRISE WIN OVER YORKSHIRE.

KEETON GETS HIS THIRD CENTURY OF THE SEASON.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, June 4.

Hampshire have good reason to "feel proud" of the fact that their first victory of the season was at the expense of the doughy Yorkshire eleven. This came as a big surprise for not even the most optimistic of Hampshire's supporters could have hoped for a win over such a strong combination. Herbert Sutcliffe made a gallant effort to save his side by playing a not-out innings for 104 runs but the other wickets fell with a monotonous regularity.

Keeton, the young Nottingham batsman, played a three-figure innings against Derby—his third of the season while quite a number of other batsmen also showed good form.

SUTCLIFFE'S GALLANT INNINGS.

GLAMORGAN v. ESSEX.

TWO INDIVIDUAL CENTURIES.

This match took place at Cardiff and while the bowlers returned some figures, two individual hundreds were registered. O'Connor scoring a not-out century for Essex while Emrys Davies entered the land of the magical three figures when Glamorgan went in to bat. Essex, however, won by 81 runs in a match which was full of interest throughout.

In their initial knock Essex totalled 260 and when Glamorgan were all out for 131 (Nicholls 6 for 49), things looked bright for Essex, and prospects for an outright win seemed more pronounced when they made 294 for 3 in their second knock when O'Connor made 112 not out.

Nothing daunted, Glamorgan went for the runs right from the start in their second venture and with Davies batting like a machine for 175 runs, it looked as though it would be anybody's game. Then Eastman came into the picture and taking 5 wickets for 83 runs, helped materially to dismiss Glamorgan for 343 and thus gave his side victory by 81 runs.

The scores were:—
Essex, 1st innings 260
Glamorgan, 1st innings 131
Nicholls, 6 for 49.
Essex, 2nd innings (3 wickets declared) 294
O'Connor, 112, not out.
Glamorgan, 2nd innings 343
Davies, 175.

NOTTS v. DERBY.

KEETON AND LARWOOD IN GREAT FORM.

A dashing innings by Keeton who made 108 runs, followed by some excellent bowling by Larwood, gave Notts a big win over Derby when these teams met at Nottingham. The home county won by an innings and 38 runs.

YORKSHIRE v. HAMPSHIRE.

SUTCLIFFE IN FORM.

Making the trip to Leeds, Hampshire acquitted themselves very well when they beat the formidable Yorkshire eleven by the narrow margin of 49 runs.

Hampshire's first innings realised 106 runs while Yorkshire was only 78 behind. In their second knock, however, Hampshire improved considerably and made 203 runs. But for the fact that Sutcliffe made 104, not out, Yorkshire would have been in a sorry plight in their second innings. As it was, they only managed 170. Sutcliffe's knock was one characteristic of this dour batsman, who in face of the odds against his side, made his runs with his usual doggedness and polish.

The scores were:—
Hampshire, 1st innings 106
Yorkshire, 1st innings 78
Hampshire, 2nd innings 203
Yorkshire, 2nd innings 170
Sutcliffe, 104, not out.

NORTHANTS v. KENT.

JUPP'S GOOD BOWLING.

A feature of this match at Northamptonshire which ended in a win on the first innings for the home county was a fine piece of bowling by their captain, Vallance Jupp, who took 7 wickets for 47 runs in Kent's first innings when the home county totalled 183. To this total Northants replied with 211. After this, however, Kent staged a remarkable recovery and had put together 292 for 5 when rain put an end to play.

The scores were:—
Kent, 1st innings 183
Jupp, 7 for 47.
Northants, 1st innings 211
Kent, 2nd innings (for 5 wickets) 292

LEICESTER v. SOMERSET.

RAIN INTERFERES.

Rain interfered with this match which took place at Leicester with the result that the county had to be satisfied with first innings points.

Somerset made 238 in their first knock and Leicester replied with 246. After the former had put together 81 for 2 in their second attempt, stumps were drawn, leaving the scores:—
Somerset, 1st innings 238
Leicester, 1st innings 246
Somerset, 2nd innings (for 2 wickets) 81

WARWICK v. SURREY.

SURREY TAKES FIRST INNINGS POINTS.

This match took place at Birmingham and resulted in a win on the first innings for Surrey. Warwick had first innings and their effort realised 243 runs while Surrey's score stood at 285 for 5 when stumps were drawn.

The scores were:—
Warwick, 1st innings 243
Surrey, 1st innings (for 5 wickets) 285

CAMBRIDGE v. SUSSEX.

LIGHT BLUES BADLY BEATEN.

The Light Blues entertained Sussex at Fenny's and were beaten by an innings and sixty runs. Taking first knock, Cambridge were dismissed for the poor total of 72 runs, Tate bowling well to get 4 wickets for 7 runs apiece. To this score, the county hit up 283 for 8 in reply, the highest scorer being Cook who collected 141 in no uncertain fashion.

When they went in for their second innings, Cambridge improved slightly but even then they were not able to avoid an innings defeat, being all out for 151. The most successful bowler for Sussex this time was Wensley who took 8 wickets for 54 runs.

The scores were:—
Cambridge, 1st innings 72
Tate, 4 for 28.
Sussex, 1st innings (8 wickets declared) 283
Cook, 141.
Cambridge, 2nd innings 151
Wensley, 8 for 54.

OXFORD v. LANCASHIRE.

BROOKE AND TYLDESLEY SCORE CENTURIES.

This match took place on the University ground and ended in a draw. Brooke, of the University while Ernest Tyldesley not only returned the compliment on behalf of his county, but also bettered Brooke's score by one run!

The Dark Blues batted first but could not make much headway against the University attack and were all out for 159 runs. Sibbles bowled well to take 6 wickets for 45 runs. Lancashire then made 334 for 4 (declared) and of this Tyldesley claimed 124.

Oxford made 381 in their second effort when Brooke contributed 123. In their second innings Lancashire made 121 for 2 and then stumps were drawn.

The scores were:—
Oxford, 1st innings 159
Sibbles, 6 for 45.
Lancashire, 1st innings (for 4 wickets declared) 334
Tyldesley, 124.
Oxford, 2nd innings 381
Brooke, 123.
Lancashire, 2nd innings (for 2 wickets) 121

NORFOLK v. ALL INDIA.

WIN FOR TOURISTS.

The two-day match between All-India and Norfolk resulted in a win for the former by 128 runs.

The Indians batted first and failed badly, scoring but 101 runs. Norfolk did even worse, their last wicket falling when the total stood at 49.

Showing much better form in their second innings, the tourists declared at 204 for 9 after which they went on to dismiss their opponents for 123 runs.

The scores were:—
All India, 1st innings 101
Norfolk, 1st innings 49
All India, 2nd innings (9 wickets declared) 204
Norfolk, 2nd innings 123

U.S. BASEBALL

YANKEES WIN AGAIN

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

PHILADELPHIA, June 4.

Lou Gehrig to-day tied the thirty-six-year-old major Baseball League's record when he hit four home runs in one day. As the result of his amazing feat the New York Yankees outscored the Philadelphia Athletics by 20-13.

It will be recalled that Gehrig tied with Babe Ruth, his team mate, for the home run crown last year with 46 home runs to his credit. This season he has scored in nine less than Jimmy Foxx of the Athletics.

In the same game Jimmy Foxx registered his nineteenth home run and Babe Ruth his fifteenth. Cochran, Combs and Lazzeri also hit home runs.

John McGraw Resigns.

New York, June 4.

John McGraw, the manager of the New York Giants in the National League and one of the most outstanding figures in American Baseball, has been forced to resign on account of ill health after thirty years' service. Bill Terry, the Giants' brilliant first baseman succeeds him.

THE FINE ART OF RELAXATION

In the days of Thackeray and the coffee-houses when leisurely conversation and relaxation were religiously cultivated, THREE CASTLES played no small part in the lives of those giants of the past. And right today, THREE CASTLES is still the choice companion and friend of those who have learned the fine art of making the most of moments of leisure.

GARRISON BILLIARDS CHALLENGE CUP.

PROSPECTS AND THIRD ROUND RESULTS.

The third round of the Garrison Billiards Tournament is now being played at the Soldiers' Club, Queen's Road.

The Challenge Cup is presented by the Hong Kong Volunteer Defence Corps and will be held by the winning team for the period of one year, or until called for by the Billiard Committee. Additional prizes will be presented according to the number of entries.

One team from each of the following units is eligible:—Royal Artillery; Hong Kong Singapore Brigade, R.A.; Royal Engineers; Royal Corps of Signals; Company and Headquarters Wing British Infantry; Royal Army Service Corps; Royal Army Medical Corps; Royal Army Ordnance Corps; and Royal Army Pay Corps.

A team consists of six, each man playing once. A game is 150 up.

Headquarters Wing of the South Wales Borderers are worthy of note. In the 1st round against "D" Coy. Argylls they won all six games, making the maximum total of 900. In the 2nd round they made a total of 873. Colour Sergeant Jarman is a very good player. In the 3rd round, against the Royal Engineers, he made a break of 57. Coy. Sgt. Major Kite and Drummer Matthias, of the Headquarters team, are also strong.

RESULTS.

The following are the results, up to date, the 3rd round being given in detail:—

First Round.

H.Q. Wing S.W.B. beat "D" Coy. A. & S.H. (600 to 480).
The rest drew byes.

Second Round.

LAWN BOWLS.

RAIN CAUSES WHOLESALE POSTPONEMENT.

All the lawn bowls league games arranged for Saturday had to be postponed until the end of the season owing to the unsuitable state of the grounds. It was the fifth round of the season and among some of the attractive games was the meeting of the unbeaten Civil Service senior team with the bowlers from Kowloon Dock.

Four games have been played so far.

Craigengower come next to Civil Service in the senior division with only one defeat, Club de Recreo and Tai Kok coming next with five points each, the odd point being secured in a draw between them.

In the junior division, Craigengower lead with full points, Club de Recreo coming next with one defeat. Civil Service, Kowloon Bowling Green Club and the Yacht Club each have lost two games out of the four.

The two senior division, leading teams, Civil Service and Craigengower, will meet this week on the latter's ground.

COLLEGES' ASK FOR FUNDS.

DELEGATES FROM NORTH IN NANKING.

AN EDUCATIONAL CRISIS.

Nanking, May 29.—Representatives of the Peking and Tientsin Government universities and colleges have arrived in Nanking to make another appeal to the Government for a maintenance fund for educational institutions in North China, it was learned to-day.

It is understood that the Government has only been paying 50 per cent. of the Peking and Tientsin educational fund for some months past, owing to the general retrenchment.

Since for years the educational institutions in North China have been existing on loans from various banks, these banks are now demanding re-payment of the loans which have accumulated to the enormous sum of over $2,000,000.

According to arrangements which were made at the time, the banks in question deducted ten per cent. from the Government appropriations monthly in payment of old debts, thereby leaving only 40 per cent. to meet educational expenses. This has proved insufficient, and as a result the salaries of the staff and the professors of universities and colleges are now several months in arrears.

Many professors have resigned in order to seek a livelihood without efficient teachers.

THE OLYMPIAN

AMERICA'S NO. 1 TRAIN

May 29 was the 21st anniversary of the first run of the famous train. The Olympian, over the Milwaukee railroad from Tacoma and Seattle to Chicago. At that time the official name of this line was The Chicago, Milwaukee and Puget Sound Railway.

For several days prior to making the initial run, this "new all-steel train" was opened for inspection in Tacoma and Seattle and it marked a great forward step for the West in luxurious transportation between the Pacific Northwest and the mid-West metropolis. The announcements made of that journey stated that the name, "Olympian," was given to it because of the Olympic Mountains which overlook its Western termini and because it was "fit for the gods in their migration from their ancient home in Greece to their modern one overlooking Puget Sound."

"This train," stated the invitation issued for this event, "which would do credit to the combined creative powers of Jupiter and his entire Court, is the world's latest triumph in transport combining, as it does, the strength and security of Vulcan's forging with the speed of Mercury's winged heels and the luxuriousness of Juno's couch."

Yet perfection has been added to perfection during the past twenty-one years and as the Olympian attains its majority this year it offers speed, comfort and luxury far beyond the dreams of its originators.

Now it rolls on roller bearings over the "electrified way," 440 miles of the road through Idaho and Montana having been electrified in 1915 and 218 miles in Washington electrified in 1919.

"This twenty-first anniversary," states J. F. Bahl, Assistant General Passenger Agent, "finds the Olympian still the crack train of the West, traveling over the shortest route between Seattle and Chicago. Its electrification over the mountains enables passengers to have clear views of the scenic beauties of the route, unobstructed by smoke, and with freedom from soot and cinders."

MISS PEGGY CARTER'S WEDDING.

DAUGHTER OF THE LATE MR L. CARTER.

Many local residents will be interested to read the following account, taken from the Bath Chronicle, of the wedding of Miss Peggy Carter, daughter of the late Mr. Leonard Carter, former Manager of the Hong Kong Telephone Co. Our contemporary states:

A wedding of special interest to the medical fraternity at Bath was solemnized at the Trinity Presbyterian Church, Vineyards.

The bridegroom was Dr. Alister Sutherland, of 102, Sydney Place, Bath, and his bride was Miss Margaret L. Carter.

The bride is the younger daughter of Mrs. Leonard Carter, of Courtfield Gardens, London, S.W. 5, and of the late Mr. Leonard Carter of Hong Kong.

Half-a-dozen doctors, among others, acted as ushers.

Dr. R. C. Gillie officiated, and the bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Bronislav Carter.

The hymns were "Supreme in wisdom as in power" and "O perfect love."

The bride looked very beautiful in a simply-cut gown of white angel-skin—it was full length and flared towards the ankles.

She wore a long veil of Brussels lace, which was fastened at the head by a single chaplet of orange blossoms. She wore a single row of pearls, and carried a sheaf of lilies.

There were two bridesmaids, Miss Alice Gray Carter (sister of the bride) and Miss Gillian Carter (cousin).

Their dresses were also of angel-skin, but of flame-colour.

Miss Janet Mary Ogston (the bride's cousin) was a dainty little train-bearer. She wore a white tulle crinoline frock, with a wreath of marigolds, carrying a bouquet of the same flowers and wearing a pearl necklace, which the bridegroom had given her.

A reception was afterwards held at the Spa Hotel, where there were over 100 guests. The bride's travelling costume was an embroidered ensemble of blue georgette, with blue coat.

BANK OF MALAYA CREDITORS.

ASSURED OF PAYMENT IN FULL.

Ipo, May 26.—A meeting of the creditors of the Bank of Malaya, called at the instance of the li-quidators, was held here to-day.
Mr. S. S. Saniyasingam presiding.
The rumour was confirmed that negotiations were proceeding for the sale of the Bank as a going concern. The names of the intending purchasers were not disclosed. In the event of the sale going through the chairman assured the meeting that creditors would be paid in full.

Mr. W. Kilner, another liquidator, stated the Bank's liabilities were $1,086,478. He stated it was difficult to arrive at a proper valuation of the Bank's assets as that aago. All property belonging to the Bank had been assessed to 66 per cent. of book value. With regard to money due to the Bank the li-quidators expected to recover 77 per cent. The reduced valuation made by the Bank's liquidators made the total assets of the Bank nearly double the liabilities.

Replying to a creditor the chairman stated the liquidators did not propose to pay a dividend with cash in hand at the bankers. The liqui-dators undertook to pay a dividend at the earliest possible moment when funds were sufficient to pay a reasonable dividend.

A women creditor inquired if women would be given preference, adding that women's money was hard earned. The chairman replied that under the law he was unable to show any preference.

A proposal to appoint five additional liquidators, to be elected by the creditors, was defeated by a large majority. Another proposal to have three liquidators nominated by shareholders and two by creditors was also defeated.
The meeting next discussed a proposal to elect a committee of inspection. This was also defeated.

CHINESE STEAMERS TO BE INSPECTED.

GOVERNMENT MEASURE TO PUT STOP TO ACCIDENTS.

Nanking, May 29.—To ensure the safety of the travelling public, the Ministry of Communications has ordered that inspection of all steamers under Chinese registry be undertaken immediately by the various Navigation Bureaux in accordance with previously promulgated regulations.

Laying the blame for the frequent shipping disasters encountered by Chinese steamers during recent years to the dilapidated conditions of the vessels and their inadequate equipment, the Ministry declares in its order that the public must be protected against such negligence and mismanagement on the part of the shipping companies.
While vessels due for inspection in accordance with the proper schedule should be promptly attended to, all others whose term is not yet due should be subjected to an emergency inspection. No fees are to be charged.

EIGHTEEN KILLED IN COURTROOM.

ROOF COLLAPSES DURING TRIAL.

Eighteen people were crushed to death and many others badly injured when the roof of the Correctional Court at Bastia, Corsica, collapsed during the hearing of a case.

Among the dead are two leading Corsican barristers, Maitre Louis Colombani, President of the Bar of Bastia, and Maitre Bianchi. The Assistant Public Prosecutor and the Mayor's secretary were injured.
The wall of the court was crowded with men and women, and the presiding magistrate had just begun to interrogate one of the prisoners, when there was a loud crashing sound.
The ceiling of the courtroom cracked across and finally opened like the splitting of an eggshell as a great mass of concrete, bricks and beams crashed down upon the people below.

Within a few seconds the greater part of the court was buried under the debris. People at the side least affected stampeded for the doors.
Rescue work was at once organised, but it was several hours before all the broken masonry could be carried away and the dead and injured extricated.

An examination showed that a great mass of masonry had fallen from the roof, breaking its way through the floor of a room above the courtroom.

H.M. THE KING AT EPSOM

BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON IN ROYAL BOX

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

Rugby, June 3.
H.M. the King celebrated his 67th birthday to-day, and received congratulatory telegrams from all parts of the Empire. His Majesty spent the morning at Buckingham Palace, where he was engaged on routine duties, and later drove with the Queen to Epsom to witness the race for the Oaks Stakes.
The Birthday Luncheon party took place in the dining room attached to the Royal Box.

Flags were flown at mast-heads of public buildings and the customary tribute of honour was paid by the Royal Navy at all home ports. Salutes of 21 guns were fired in Hyde Park and in Windsor Castle Park. Five thousand troops took part in the celebrations at Catterick Camp.

The Foreign Secretary, Sir John Simon, gave a dinner to celebrate the King's birthday at the Foreign Office, at which the Foreign Ambasadors and Ministers in London, members of cabinet, and others attended.

CHINESE LEGATIONS ABROAD.

APPOINTMENT OF MILITARY ATTACHES CONSIDERED.

Nanking, May 30.—It is understood that General Chiang Kai Shek, President of the Military Affairs Commission, is considering the appointment of a number of experienced military officers to serve as military attaches in Chinese legations abroad.

While owing to financial difficulties, few military attaches have in recent years been stationed in Chinese legations abroad, General Chiang considers such a step desirable as this will facilitate investigation of naval and military developments in foreign countries.

FIREWORK RAIDERS.

YOUNG PEER AND BARONET APOLOGISE.

A viscount and a baronet are among five young men who have sent letters of apology to Sir John Leigh, or Witley Park, near Godalming, Surrey, and Mrs. G. H.
Pinckard, of Coombe Court, Childingfold, for the fireworks raids at their homes early on Sunday morning, April 10.

The five are: Lord Selby (who is 21), Sir Anthony Lindsay-Hogg
(22), Mr. Robin Reed, Mr. Richard Mallock, and Mr. David Behar.
The young men drove to the residences in a motor-car and let off rockets, flares, and other fireworks, rousing the households. They scattered lighted squibs as they drove away.

Mrs. Pinckard has decided to accept the apology on condition that the writers give £25 5s. to the rector of Chiddingfold (the Rev. E.
P. Peloe), to be disposed of at his discretion.

AUSTRALIAN POULTRY.

EXPERIMENT TO SUPPLY MALAYA.

In furtherance of the efforts of the Council of Industries of Western Australia, which has its headquarters at Perth, to promote trade between Western Australia and Malaya, a trial shipment of dressed poultry, including ordinary fowl and capons, has reached Singapore.
A West Australian firm agreed to freeze the shipment without charge and the State Shipping Service waived freight charges. Contributions to the shipment were made by a number of poultry-growers who reared the birds specially and the Minister for Agriculture (Mr. P.
D. Ferguson), who visited the factory at Spearwood to see the preparations for shipment was particularly interested in the capons. The grower said that they were treated when from six to eight weeks old, and given a special diet, they soon developed fine meaty bodies. At seven months old they weighed about 9lb. and showed an increase of 24 to 3 lb. on untreated cockerels. He chose Plymouth Rocks because of their white legs, as consumers were notoriously averse to purchasing black-legged fowls. To overcome that prejudice, a few Black Orpingtons were purposely included in the shipment.

For export, poultry was not drawn. The birds were killed by making an incision with a sharp knife inserted in the head through the mouth and leaving the feathers free from blood. Plucking was done immediately the birds were killed and they were trussed while warm, a ruffle of feathers being left around the neck.

The Minister said he hoped the experiment would be a valuable one to the poultry industry of the State. He congratulated the Council of Industries for having encouraged the project.

The birds are being marketed in Singapore by John Little & Co.
